Stimson-Green Mansion In-Person Meeting Details

FIRST TIME ARRIVAL

For the Trunk Room Gatherings on 3rd Floor:

Text or call Rebecca at 206-851-9083 when you park and let us know you are heading to the front door of the mansion and ring the bell. For safety reasons, the front door must remain locked when unattended. If a larger group is attending, we should have a helper at the door to direct guests.

Once you know your way upstairs for all following gatherings:

For arriving and departing: please come to the back kitchen door and enter our trusted visitor code: 8051. Please make sure the door closes securely behind you and do not lock any deadbolts. Head upstairs via the back stairwell (see images on page 2, or directions written below).

For the Turkish Room Gatherings on Basement Level:

The outer black gate on Seneca Street leads directly to this room. Please text Rebecca if you expect to arrive late as we will lock the gate/inner door after we get started. There is a small staircase below that leads directly to our meeting space. There is a restroom adjacent to our meeting room.

Please Note: The Carriage House at the back of the parking lot is 1212 Minor Avenue. This is a private clubhouse. Proceed to the big house for all our gatherings.

THIRD FLOOR ACCESS

From the Front Door/Master Staircase: Take the 2 flights of stairs and turn LEFT at the top. Go through the first door on the LEFT that leads to a separate hallway area. You'll see the backstairwell in this area. Turn RIGHT and go up the stairs marked PRIVATE that leads to the top floor, which is the old staff quarters. After entering the third floor, you'll see the waiting area and restroom door to your right. On your left is the kitchen and hallway to our office. Our office (The Trunk Room) is the last room on the LEFT near the kitchen.

From the Kitchen/Back Stairs: Head towards the doorway next to the stove/oven. Immediately turn LEFT and enter the back stairwell. Take these stairs all the way up to the next level and turn RIGHT to go up the last flight of stairs marked PRIVATE. You'll see the door marked PRIVATE for The Lifespan Collective. Upon entering, you'll see the waiting area and restroom door on the far right. On your left is the kitchen and hallway to our office. Our office (The Trunk Room) is the last room on the LEFT near the kitchen.

Please Note: If there are other events in the house when you arrive, please let the greeter know you have a meeting on the third floor and head directly upstairs through the master staircase, or the back stairs next to the kitchen. For safety purposes, if you enter through the back kitchen door and Kaspars Catering is prepping for an event, please walk around the island and do not block the oven/stove access.

ACCESSIBILITY

Please Note: The Stimson-Green Mansion (SGM) is a local City of Seattle Landmark, listed on both the Washington Heritage Register and the National Register for Historic Places. It is not ADA accessible due to its age and historical status.

The Washington Trust for Historic Preservation is happy to arrange tours whenever feasible; however, meeting attendees are requested to remain with your meeting facilitator in the designated office at all other times. The Mansion houses offices for other nonprofit organizations so your cooperation in respecting all parties' use of the space is appreciated.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

There are many bus stops within blocks of the house. If you take the Link Light Rail, both the University St. Station and the Westlake Station are .7 miles away. The Mansion is served by Metro Bus Route 2, which runs along Seneca Street, or Route 12, which runs along Madison Street, two blocks to the South.

DRIVING

SGM is located atop Seattle's First Hill on Minor Avenue between Seneca and University Streets. Google Maps will direct you easily when searching the Stimson-Green Mansion, also home to the Washington Trust for Historic Preservation. We share the block with First Hill Park.
